

Month	Christian Value	Unicef Article	Spirituality focus	British Value	Quote of the month
September	Thankfulness	Article 29: Your education should develop your talents and teach you to respect others (link to start of year expectations)	Stilling – seeing things more clearly	Mutual respect and tolerance - appreciating each and every member of its family.	Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you will never, ever have enough. Oprah Winfrey
October	Trust	Article 30: You have the right to practise your own language, culture and religion. (link to Black History Month)	Noticing – becoming aware of how life can energise or drain us	Democracy – all members of our family helping each other and trusting their words and actions.	To be trusted is a greater compliment than being loved. George MacDonald
November	Friendship	Article 15: You have the right to choose your own friends and form groups and clubs, so long as it's not harmful to others.	Blessing – focusing on human flourishing and growth	Mutual respect - respecting each other's differences and celebrating them.	"The most beautiful discovery true friends make is that they can grow separately without growing apart." Elisabeth Foley
December	Compassion	Article 14: You have the right to choose your own religion and beliefs, with the help of your parents.	Mending – forgiveness and healing	Mutual respect - being sympathetic to others, listening and offering help	"There is no better compass than compassion" Amanda Gorman
January	Perseverance	Article 1: Everyone under 18 has rights – there are 54 rights, all of them are equally important. They aim to do what is best for you as long as it's not harmful to others. (linked to Class Charters)	Dwelling – finding meaning in the words of the Bible (or another inspirational text)	Mutual respect - supporting and encouraging each other to succeed.	"Real change, enduring change, happens one step at a time." Ruth Bader Ginsburg
February	Service	Article 17: You have the right to information that is helpful and not harmful through T.V., books and elsewhere. (link to Safer Internet Day 06.02)	Blessing – focusing on human flourishing and growth	Mutual respect - we think about others in our community and worldwide	"Great acts are made up of small deeds." -Lao Tzu

March	Forgiveness	Article 28: You have the right to the best possible education. (link to World Book Day 07.03)	Mending – forgiveness and healing	Mutual respect and tolerance – showing understanding through forgiveness and friendship	"Forgive others, not because they deserve forgiveness, but because you deserve peace." Jonathan Huie
April	Justice	Article 24: You have the right to good healthcare and a safe environment (link to Earth Day 22.04)	Stilling – seeing things more clearly	Democracy – having a voice that is heard	"If you don't like the road you're walking, start paving another one." Dolly Parton
May	Truthfulness	Article 31: You have the right to relax and play (link to World Mental Health Week 13-19/05)	Noticing – becoming aware of how life can energise or drain us	Rule of Law – following the St Anne's school rules	Truthfulness is the foundation of all the virtues of mankind. Abdu'l-Bahá
June	Respect	Article 22: You have the right to special care and protection if you are a refugee (link to World Refugee Day 20/06)	Blessing – focusing on human flourishing and growth	Mutual respect – valuing each member of its family.	"Respect for ourselves guides our morals, respect for others guides our manners." Laurence Sterne
July	Generosity	Article 16: You have the right to privacy (link to pending Summer holidays)	Noticing – becoming aware of how life can energise or drain us	Mutual respect and tolerance –community thinking of others and working with local and national charities	We can only be truly generous when we expect nothing in return." Muhammad Ali